

Studio 1 is located in Schloss Hohenkammer. It features the latest technical equipment and is ideally suited for recording a webinar or broadcasting a livestream. A well-versed Digital Meeting Concierge supports you in your work. They take care of everything: technology, set-up as well as video and audio editing.

Technical equipment

- 3 LED panel lights front on tripod
- 2 panel lights head/back on tripod
- Background: Self-supporting screen, changeable (green screen, white, photo background)
- 1 display on wheels (preview display for speaker)
- 1 compact studio camera with adjustable tripod
- Autocue (speaker text/display of other video conference participants)
- Compact direction (source selection, keying, PiP)
- 2 control room displays (multiview video direction, autocue management)
- 1 wireless microphone with lavalier microphone and 1 directional microphone
- Analogue audio mixer (mixing of broadcast audio, audio embedding via video direction)
- 1 in-ear receiver (participants' returning audio)
- Compact video conferencing system as backup
- 1 controlling computer autocue
- 1 controlling computer video direction/stream
- Capture card (interfacing mixed video with client's PC via USB)
- USB audio interface (tapping into the video conference returning audio)
- LAN connection for customer's PC in the stage area
- USB hard drive (recording)

Recommended for Recording a webinar, broadcasting a livestream, hosting a professional video conference etc.

Number of people

up to 3 people in front of camera

Costs

Starting at 80 euros per hour

